

Ursinus College

MLK Week 2023 Essay Contest

Ursinus College is pleased to announce the Martin Luther King, Jr. Essay Contest. All students in grades 5-8 are encouraged to apply. Multiple winners may be chosen and can expect notification the week of January 16, 2023.

The purpose of the contest is to encourage young people to celebrate the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. through inquiry, reflection, and personal expression.

Entry Requirements

Theme: Please reflect on the life and times of Dr. King and prepare an entry that expresses how his words and actions can be an inspiration and guide for your generation.

- Submissions will be accepted until December 2, 2022. Submissions received after the deadline will not be accepted
- One entry per student. Duplicate entries will be disqualified.
- The official contest entry form must accompany each submission.
- All entries must be original work (entries deemed to infringe on copyright protections will be disqualified).
- Hard copies of entries will not be returned.
- See submission instructions below.

Entry Specifications

Essay	Grades	Word Count
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Prose Only• Typed or legibly printed. Entries deemed illegible by the committee will be disqualified.• Single spaced in standard font (Arial, Times New Roman, Calibri, Georgia recommended)• No script	5	150-250 Words
	6-8	300-500 Words

Judging of all entries will be based on the following criteria:

- | | |
|-------------------------|----------------|
| ○ Adherence to theme | ○ Organization |
| ○ Awareness of audience | ○ Language |
| ○ Idea development | ○ Grammar |

Ursinus College

MLK Week 2023 Essay Contest

Entry Form

Entrant Information (required)
Name
School	School City & State
Grade	Teacher's Name
How did you hear about the contest?	Teacher's Email Address
Parent or Guardian Contact Information (required for individual entries not submitted by your teacher)
Name
Phone Number
Email

Submission Instructions

Entries may be submitted electronically with the entry form to inclusionawards@ursinus.edu or by mail with entry form to: MLK Week Contest, C/O Heather Lobban-Viravong, Vice President for College and Community Engagement, Ursinus College, 601 E Main Street, Collegeville, PA 19426.