Dear Spring-Ford Athletic Spectator:

September 14, 2021

Our mission at SFASD is to promote a safe and healthy environment where everyone can enjoy our student athletes as they compete. The following is in effect and mandatory for admission to all Spring-Ford Area High School Athletic Events:

- No backpacks will be permitted in the stadium.
- All large purses are subject to search.
- No noise makers of any kind, i.e., Whistles, horns, cowbells etc.
- No outside drinks may be brought in. (Including Coffee & Water Bottles)
- No face paint or masks covering the face.
- No hand-held signs. Appropriate cut outs of Spring-Ford players are permitted but must be approved by security.
- Shirts must be worn while in the stadium. Shirts must cover your entire torso.
- Tickets will be required until the end of the third quarter.
- Once you exit the venue, you may not return without purchasing another ticket at the main entrance and only after being vetted by School Police or Security Personnel.
- No tobacco uses of any kind. (Smoking, Vaping, Chewing)
- No Vaping of any kind.
- No weapons of any nature.
- Groups may not congregate in front of the bleacher areas and must stay in motion. (No Loitering in groups)
- The grass areas near the Scoreboard, Bathrooms and Booster Sales are not for playground use during the event.
- Failure to comply with direction from Administrators, School Police, or Contracted Security will result in expulsion from the event.

The School District reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone who does not comply with the above security and safety requirements.

Sincerely,

Mickey McDaniel
Athletic Director
