Welcome Students! It is never too early to start thinking about your future and setting goals for yourself. The Future Planning Center (FPC) is here to help you determine the steps necessary to meet your goals. We encourage you to utilize the FPC during their study halls to research colleges, majors, careers, work on applications, essays, etc. Students who would like to visit the FPC during their study hall just need to get a pass from one of the College Career Coordinators prior to their scheduled study hall. Students can get a pass before school or in between periods.

Do you have a lot of questions or want to discuss something one on one with your College Career Coordinator? You should schedule a one on one appointment to meet with your College Career Coordinator.

The College Career Coordinators are available in the FPC for students before school, during school, and after school each day. Please keep in mind that there will be some days the FPC is unavailable due to testing, presentations, and other school events.

Welcome Parents! We know that you want to see your children be successful after graduating from Spring-Ford as much as they do! We are here to help you as you consider the different post-secondary options with your child. We welcome any questions you have whether it be about searching for a career, looking at military options, or trying to understand the college application and financial aid process. The College Career Coordinators are available to meet with with families right after school (2:30 pm) or during evening hours. Evening hours are available by appointment only. Ms. Falco (A-K) will meet with families on Wednesday evenings and Ms. Bowlby (L-Z) will meet with families on Thursday evenings.

We also encourage you to attend some of the evening programs that the FPC hosts for students and families throughout the year. You can find a list of the upcoming events under the FPC Events Section of each
