IV. BOARD AND COMMITTEE REPORTS
MCIU Legislative Tom DiBello 4th Weds. 7:45 p.m.
There was no report as information was covered last week in Mrs. Spletzer’s report.

Curriculum/Technology Dawn Heine 1st Tues. 6:30 p.m.
Mrs. Heine reported that the Curriculum/Technology Committee met viewed a presentation on Project Max. Mrs. Heine stated that we were approached to apply for approval of this by PaTTAN. Project Max is a grant that focuses the capacity of schools to provide students with complex instructional needs with access to and learning of grade level academic standards, including the Pennsylvania Core Standards. Mrs.
Heine reported that the district applied for the $5,000 grant which will be used to help with the training of our teachers. Dr. Floyd announced that the district was awarded the grant. Mrs. Heine stated that they had 3 vendors come in to talk about the books that now appear on the agenda for approval. Mrs. Heine reported that there was a long discussion on whether to continue offering French as a foreign language. Mrs. Bast and Mr. Cope put together an information packet for the board which provided a rationale for maintaining French. Mrs. Heine stated that as a Board if they were to eliminate French it could not just be a drop dead functionality as there are currently 500 students enrolled in this program that would need to be placed in another program.
She added that the Board would need to develop a plan to phase it out if they opted to go this route. Mrs. Heine reported that AP Human Geography is being offered this year and in 9th grade there are 10 students enrolled and in the 10-12 grades we have 26 students enrolled. Mrs. Heine commented that the STEM Program which is being offered through Project Lead the Way has 54 9th grade students and 70 10th through 12th grade students involved next year. Mrs. Heine reported that on the technology side they discussed the $250,000 that Mr. Reynolds has in his budget for technology upgrades throughout the buildings and the fact that we were holding back on most of those. She stated that they are planning on moving forward on some minor items because it is not requiring the same technology that we plan on using the remaining funds for. Mrs. Heine reported that they are also gathering information for Phase III of the Security Surveillance System and the hope was that the security assessment by the state would have taken place but as of yet it has not. The committee talked about the need for a strategy before anything else moves forward so that there is consistency among the buildings.

Superintendent’s Report  Dr. David R. Goodin Dr. Goodin acknowledged Mr. Cope and the Language Department for putting together the information on the French Program that went out to the entire Board last week. Dr. Goodin recognized all of the individuals who made the 5K Run a success, especially Dr. Roche and Carol Ganister. Dr. Goodin reported that they had over 272 runners participate and 41 kids participate in the Kid Fun Run. The event brought in $10,600 of which $8,000 was profit. Dr.
Goodin stated that thank you letters were sent out to the sponsors. He added that the event benefits the Senior Impact Awards which is where seniors have the opportunity to recognize a staff member who has made an impact on their lives. Dr. Goodin reported that he did not beat Dr. Roche’s son Cooper and as a result he will honor his bet with Dr. Roche and this Thursday he will be spending the day in the art display case. Mrs. Spletzer asked if the Board Members could be texted with a picture of this. Dr. Goodin praised Cooper for running a fine race.

Dr. Roche acknowledged the Spring-Ford Athletic Booster Club who was a sponsor and donated $500 but somehow did not have their name listed on the t-shirt. Dr. Roche apologized for this oversight and took accountability for this but stated that the Booster Club was very gracious throughout this process. Dr. Roche added that Dr. Goodin did not finish the race but Cooper did in 32 minutes.
Solicitor’s Report  Mark Fitzgerald

Mr. Fitzgerald reported that he sent an email to the Board right before this evening’s meeting an action item that should be included on tonight’s agenda with regards to the former Upper Providence Tax Collector. Mr. Fitzgerald stated that the Business Office and his office have been looking at the reconciliation of collections which is the lien list of currently outstanding delinquent taxes. Mr. Fitzgerald stated that it is necessary for the Board to take formal action tonight with regards to the lien list for last year. Mr. Fitzgerald reported that it is typically the process that the outgoing tax collector should have acted upon before leaving office. Mr. Fitzgerald stated that the Board will need this evening to authorize the administration in conjunction with his office the power to contact the bond to stand in the tax collector’s place if necessary. Mr. Fitzgerald read the motion which stated:

“The Board of School Directors authorizes and directs the district administration and the solicitor’s office to execute documents to take action against Beverly Nohl’s bond as Upper Providence Tax Collector such that the surety is authorized and empowered to collect or appoint another to collect any remaining outstanding taxes as well as any other responsibilities still remaining or otherwise within the power of Beverly Nohl”.

Mr. Pettit made the motion and Mrs. Heine seconded it. There was no public comment.

Mr. Pettit wanted it made clear that this related to the former tax collector and not the current tax collector. Mr. Fitzgerald stated that he wanted to clarify a couple other items and that is through their preliminary investigation they believe the district is owed approximately $3,000 so it is not a significant amount of money. He stated that what is significant is the amount of liens which need to be collected and as of right now are about $1.2 million.

The Board discussed exactly what the motion entailed, the timeline once the process starts and what correspondence we have had with the former tax collector. Mr. Fitzgerald responded and also advised the Board that Mrs. Nohl has not responded at all to the district.

The motion passed 9-0.

XI PUBLIC TO BE HEARD

Mr. DiBello spoke about the two students at the Western Center who have advanced to a national competition and it was brought to his attention that the students are Spring-Ford students and are required to raise their own funds in order to participate in the competition. He commented that he feels that Spring-Ford has funded many students who have advanced to state levels to attend those competitions and he feels the district should fund these two Spring-Ford Western Center students to attend this event.

The Board discussed the details of the competition and that the hope was that the Western Center would pay for the cost to send the students. This topic is scheduled to be discussed at the JOC meeting in May. A motion was made by Mr. DiBello and seconded by Mr. Cromley that stated: “In the event that the Western Center does not subsidize the student’s trip to attend the Skills USA Challenge then the district shall contribute an amount not to exceed $5,000 per student with a maximum not to exceed $10,000”.

There was no public comment on the motion. The motion passed 9-0.

Dan Miscavage, Upper Providence Township, read the following statement: “My sons Andrew and Jack are first grade students at Upper Providence Elementary. Their teachers for the first two years have been Robin Rohrbach and Eric Hettrick. Their experiences in the first two years have been nothing short of awesome. Mrs. Rohrbach gave my boys the foundations to build the rest of their academic careers. She is a caring teacher who holds the kids responsible to be good citizens. Mr. Hettrick is the boys’ first grade teacher and has also had a major impact on their lives. He goes through daily workouts with the kids (all 25 of them) to get out the wiggles and to help make them life-long learners in fitness. He also uses the Smartboard in his classroom for innovative lessons that my boys come home and rave about. I want to thank these teachers for their positive and unwavering support of the students in their classes.

Joy Needles, Collegeville, read the following statement: “My husband and I chose to move to Royersford in 2002 shortly after the birth of our first child. We saw what this district had and wanted that for our own children. Tonight I want to share with you specific examples of what I have seen here that reminds me on a daily basis why we chose this district to educate our children. In second grade my son James was identified as having a specific learning disability and began to see Mr. Raber, the reading specialist at Evans. Up until this point, my son was not particularly fond of school and would often make excuses as to why he didn’t want to go to school. But once a relationship was forged with Mr. Raber, James’ attitude began to change. Mr. Raber introduced my son to books that he found interesting, funny and easy to read on his own independent reading level. The series was called Piggy and Elephant by Mo Willems and we now own every book that Willems penned. Through reading these books, my son felt successful as a reader for the very first time. Mr. Raber also encouraged James to participate in the “Read to Dogs” Program where each Friday James would have the opportunity to cuddle up to a furry friend and read for the sole purpose of reading for enjoyment. Two years later and James still looks forward to reading with the dogs each Friday. John discovered that my son love to sing, and although he has a beautiful singing voice, sometimes he confuses the lyrics or even makes up his own words. John creatively began to teach James how to read by using the song lyrics to his favorite songs! In addition to teaching my son how to read, John also has acted as a mentor to my son. You see, my son also has severe anxiety and when he becomes stressed or anxious, John has offered his time and his classroom for James to decompress. On one particular occasion, my son was feeling overly embarrassed for something that he had done, and so, to alleviate that stress, John met with him for a long period of time to help him process the situation and come up with a plan about what he could do the next time. Upon returning James to his class, Mr. Raber pretended to trip and fall in front of the class, all this to draw unwanted attention away from my son and onto himself. You see, Mr. Raber understands my son and because he has forged a relationship with my son, James truly believes that he can learn and that he can read. He recognizes that he is an important person, student and even friend to Mr. Raber. This is evident because when positive things happen in his little world, like making the travel soccer team, Mr. Raber is the first person that he wants to share his good news with at school. This teacher has gone above and beyond by taking his time to invest in my son, making him feel important and special, capable of achieving anything that he puts his mind to. He has motivated James to begin to read for pleasure and because of this, the gap in his learning is narrowing and he is able to spend more time in the regular classroom with his peers. In conclusion, Alfred North Whitehead says “No one who achieves success does so without the help of others. The wise and confident acknowledge this help with gratitude”.

Denise Fazio, Royersford, read the following statement:
“I am here to acknowledge the wonderful staff at Royersford Elementary School. Every year they go far and beyond for my son and the students of Royersford Elementary School. In the fall, they coordinate an awesome dance for the dance-a-thon, which is always the highlight of the night. In order to practice they go into school early several days per week in order to perfect it for the big night. Also, my son is involved in a 4th grade dance production, and he is so excited for the big night all because of his hard work and the teachers’ dedication all year. They put in many hours doing the choreography for the kids and they practice almost every Friday. Furthermore, this past week, even though the environmental education program was cut, the teachers keep doing a super Earth Day Program. This used to be organized by the environmental education teacher, but they have kept it going. My son couldn’t wait to tell me about his day this week. In conclusion, my son sometimes struggles in school and they have put so much extra time over the years to help him and other students be successful even with the constraints of large class sizes. Having 25 kids in a class can be quite a challenge in elementary school. This is a huge obstacle for them but they are highly dedicated and put their students first”.

Laura DiBattista, Royersford, read the following statement:
“I would like to take this opportunity to thank my daughter’s teachers at Upper Providence Elementary and specifically Mr. Bergey. He is my daughter’s second grade teacher. He is an energetic and dedicated teacher who goes above and beyond with his creative lesson plans and new technologies in teaching ideologies in the classroom. He is also a compassionate teacher who deeply cares about his students, especially my daughter, and I believe that my daughter has excelled both socially and academically because of him. My daughter has not only learned valuable content but also skills that she can carry with her as a contributing member of society. So, I wanted to thank Mr. Bergey, I did not realize that he would be in the audience today. I wanted to thank you for being such a positive role model to my daughter”.

Jaclyn Ritter, Limerick Township, read the following statement:
“My daughter, Madelyn, is a second grader in Mrs. McGrory’s class. Over the last few months, I have witnessed Madlyn become incredibly confident in her academic abilities and proud of what she is capable of accomplishing. I know a major reason for this blossoming is due to the individualized attention Mrs. McGrory gives to each student. Madlyn has had the opportunity to complete enrichment activities because Mrs. McGrory is always willing to put in extra time and effort to create new and interesting enhancements to her lessons. Madlyn carries this new found confidence to the fun supplementary assignments she can find on the websites on Mrs. McGrory’s class page. The examples shared by parents tonight are just a small sampling of the wonderful things our teachers have done for our children this year. Spring-Ford teachers continue to put their students first while, as Mr. DiBello stated last week, teachers have been working under an expired contract since the start of the school year. Thank you for your time and this opportunity to speak”.

Mr. DiBello stated that he agreed with the teachers who spoke this evening saying we have a lot of excellent staff in Spring-Ford. We have one of the more solid districts in the area and he looks forward to hearing about the staff over the next couple of weeks as well.

Mr. Ciresi commented that he has a 9th grader and he has been thrilled with the teacher’s he had, the dedication and commitment. Mr. Ciresi said his son, thank God, loves school. Mr. Ciresi stated that he sees his son come home and be thrilled to be in Spring-Ford. Mr. Ciresi commented that they chose to live in Spring-Ford and have chosen to stay to see him through his education. Mr. Ciresi stated that he agrees with those that spoke tonight with regards to what the teachers have done for each and every one of them. Mr. Ciresi added that this week is a good reflection because on Wednesday night we will honor those teachers that have impacted our lives. Mr. Ciresi stated that he believes it is important for everyone to understand that who and what the people who serve as teacher and administrators but we also need not to forget our aides, our custodians and the 9 people who sit here as volunteers and put in countless hours. Mr. Ciresi expressed his appreciation to each and every one of those that spoke tonight and he also stated that he appreciates the 9 years he has had here in the district as a parent. Mr. Ciresi commented that when his son graduates he will be proud to say that he is a Spring-Ford graduate.
