Reading Resources on the Web

RAZ Kids   https://www.raz-kids.com/

User name and password available from your child's teacher

RAZ-kids offers 400+ leveled books ranging from Guided Reading level A through Z. New books are added each month. The books offered are both fiction and nonfiction, in English and Spanish. Each book can be independently read and listened to. There are e-quizzes to support data driven instruction at the conclusion of each book. This site is accessible anywhere online and through an app.

Epic Books   https://www.getepic.com/

This site is free through June 30th. Hopefully they will extend that date. You can contact Mrs. Larimer for an account if you do not already have one through your child's teacher. slari@spring-ford.net

Pebble Go https://site.pebblego.com/modules

        Username: pgles   Password: sframs

Pebble Go is an online encyclopedia for children. You can pick from many topics to explore, and the site will read to you as you read along.

Storyline On Line   http://www.storylineonline.net/

Storyline Online features actors reading animated children's picture books.

Audible https://stories.audible.com/start-listen

Amazon is offering free access to this site of audio books while schools are closed.

Scholastic Readapalooza   https://www.scholastic.com/site/summer/home.html

Scholastic is offering an online summer reading program. This may be a good option if local libraries are not able to open this summer.

StarFall http://www.starfall.com/

Starfall.com is a website that teaches children to read with phonics. Their systematic approach, in conjunction with audiovisual interactivity, is perfect for preschool, kindergarten, first grade, second grade, special education, home school, and English language development. This website is very child-friendly and fun for children to learn on. There is a variety of animated songs, mathematics, and reading activities spanning pre-k to 2nd grade. Children can use this at home or in the classroom to have fun while learning essential reading and math skills.

Sight Word Bingo http://www.abcya.com/dolch_sight_word_bingo.htm

This site uses the Dolch lists of high frequency words. Many of those overlap with the Journeys sight words.

Read Theory https://readtheory.org/

Read Theory is a K-12 online reading comprehension program that presents assessments to students at a "just right" level. I can create an account for your child. Just email me and I will set it up.
