Brooke Elementary School Plans Mosaic Project

ROYERSFORD, PA – Students and staff at Brooke Elementary School recently began designing a hand made ceramic mosaic for their school. Students are working with Brooke art teacher, Susan Witts, and professional Philadelphia-based mosaic artist, Jessica Gorlin Liddell.

The mural will feature images that travel throughout history, spotlight the present and look into the future. This project is a “commemorative” mural depicting these themes in coordination with the elementary schools 25th Anniversary. Each section tells the story of the founding Brooke Family and the school, as the children see it, today.

Art teacher, Susan Witts and building principal Mary Pat Long will facilitate the project, with financial support from the Home and School Association. A dedication will take place in the new year.
