Brooke Elementary School Selected as 2013 ExxonMobil Educational Alliance Grant Recipient

ROYERSFORD — Brooke Elementary School was recently chosen as an ExxonMobil Educational Alliance grant recipient. The award provides with school with a $500 award that can be used toward educational and curricular expenses.

Brooke Elementary was nominated by Emmaus-based Top Star Express for its ability to make the learning experience fun and approachable.

Building Principal Dr. Edward Mackel said the school will use the grant to purchase math and science books and materials.

“We appreciate this generous gift, which will help enhance the learning experience for all Brooke Elementary students,” Mackel added.
