Spring-Ford Area Senior High School Student Art on Display at Local Medical Arts Center

ROYERSFORD, PA – Artwork from nearly 15 Spring-Ford Area High School art students will be on display in the Braemer Gallery student art showcase. The Braemer Gallery is housed in the Minerva D. Braemer Medical Arts Building at Einstein Medical Center in East Norriton, PA. This opportunity was presented to Spring-Ford Area High School art teacher Linda Crane when the gallery coordinator, Susannah Hart Thomer, recognized outstanding artwork from SFAHS students at the Annual Montco High School Exhibition last spring.

To complete the project, the medical center provided each student with an 18x24 inch canvas, allowing the artist to select their own subject and style. Artwork includes local landscape scenes, vacation impressions and imaginative stylized compositions. SFAHS students are:

Dylan Dirks, Elina Oehlert, Kelsie Reimer, Elie Graziadei, Delaney Logan, Emma Richardson, Kayleigh Frey, Jake Pasquine, Erika Bartolotta (grade 12); Emma Coath, Brittany Lare, Haley Schiek, Sarah Johnston (grade 11); and Mikayla Baker (2014 graduate).

For more information on the project, which will be on display through December 2014, please contact Linda Crane at lcran@spring-ford.net.

WHEN: The Opening reception will be Friday, October 10 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The show will run through December.

WHERE: Minerva D. Braemer Medical Arts Building at Einstein Medical Center, 559 West Germantown Pike, East Norriton, PA
