Spring-Ford Area School District Announces Changes in the 2014-2015 School Calendar

ROYERSFORD, PA – Spring-Ford Area School District has announced changes to the 2014-2015 school calendar to address the loss of instructional time due to recent weather related school closures. The 2014-2015 school year had three emergency days built into the calendar in the event of cancellations. This year, SFASD has had five weather related school closures (January 26, 2015; February 17, 2015; and March 4, 5 and 6, 2015). Two additional emergency days will be converted into instructional days. The following changes will address these two additional instructional days:

- Wednesday, April 1, 2015 will now be an instructional day for students. This was originally scheduled to be a staff in-service day, in which students would not report to school.
- Thursday, April 2, 2015 will now be an instructional day for students. Schools and district offices were originally scheduled to be closed this day.
- Wednesday, June 17, 2015 will now be a staff in-service day. This will also be the last day for teachers.

The tentative last day for students will remain June 11, 2015. Any additional calendar changes due to weather will be made as needed.

SFASD thanks students, staff and families for their understanding and cooperation as these calendar adjustments are made. Please visit www.spring-ford.net for more information.
