SFASD Nominee, Wegman's Collegeville, Selected for 2015 Council for Exceptional Children Business Award

ROYERSFORD, PA – Spring-Ford Area School District Special Education Supervisor, Dr. Jeanmarie Mason, was recently notified that her nominee, Wegman's Collegeville, was selected for the Council for Exceptional Children Business Award. Mason nominated Wegman's for their continued support of Spring-Ford students, saying, "Wegman's has worked closely with our students with disabilities and employs our graduates with a competitive hourly rate and opportunities for advancement."

Wegman's and SFASD have been invited to the CEC 2015 Convention & Expo, where the store will be recognized for their commitment to and exemplary performance in serving children and youth in the special education community.

More About the Council for Exceptional Children: The Council for Exceptional Children is an international community of professionals who are the voice and vision of special and gifted education. CEC's mission is to improve, through excellence and advocacy, the education and quality of life for children and youth with exceptionalities and to enhance the engagement of their families.

The CEC Business Award recognizes a business or corporation that has provided for the employment and enhancement of individuals with exceptionalities in order to promote and support their full participation in the community.
