Spring-Ford Hosts Career Month Photo/Media Opportunity

ROYERSFORD, PA – The Spring-Ford Area High School is excited to announce the Second Annual Career Month will be held in March. The FPC will host a variety of professionals to speak to Spring-Ford High School students about their careers.

The presentations are open to all students in the 10-12 building. The career speakers will present about their profession, education, and career experiences. These presentations will allow students to learn about a potential career from professionals in the field. Each presenter will have a Q&A portion of their presentation so students can ask specific career related questions.

Students should sign up for presentations in the Future Planning Center. Students may sign-up for multiple speakers during the month of March.

Presentations include:

Event Planning & PR with Jess Ames (Spring-Ford class of '09), Angel Flight East

Culinary Arts with Cheryl Ann Niedwiecki, The Culinary Arts Institute of MCCC

Engineering with Ben Avicoli, Lockheed Martin

Nursing and Genetics with Patti Powers, Pottstown Memorial Medical Center

Financial Advising with Curtis Johnston, Univest Corp.

TV Production with Michael Powers, ESPN
